

Preparing for Retirement

TRS August 2007

What Your Beneficiary Should Know

When a loved one dies, beneficiaries often find they are overwhelmed and unprepared to deal with the death benefit process. Therefore, it is very important for TRS members to communicate with their beneficiaries and provide them with as much advance information as possible.

Designating or Changing a Beneficiary for an Active or Inactive Member

New members designate a primary and contingent beneficiary or multiple beneficiaries when they begin employment. If the member wishes to change the beneficiary designation, the member must complete a CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY FORM PRIOR TO RETIREMENT. Do not use this form if you are retired or participating in DROP. Keeping your beneficiary current will help avoid legal difficulties and not delay payment of the death benefit to your beneficiary.

Death of an Active Member

The death benefit process begins when the TRS is notified of the member's death. It is important for the death to be reported as soon as possible to avoid any delays or problems. Contact the TRS at 1-800-214-2158. The TRS will send you FORM RSA-SB APPLICATION FOR SURVIVOR BENEFIT to be completed with a list of documents (for example, Certified Death Certificate) the TRS requires to complete the process. The beneficiary may also obtain the application from the member's employer or the RSA Web site at www.rsa.state.al.us.

Beneficiary Benefits of an Active Member

If a member dies prior to retirement, death benefits are calculated and paid to the beneficiary based on the member's age, service credit, employment status and eligibility for retirement. Consult your TRS Member Handbook or visit our Web site for information on preretirement death benefits.

Changing a Beneficiary for a Retired Member

The retired member should contact the TRS for the necessary form required to change a beneficiary.

Death of a Retired Member

Please notify the TRS as soon as possible upon the death of a retiree. Upon notification, the TRS will mail the necessary form and information to the member's designated beneficiary. Any outstanding benefit payments must be returned to the TRS before processing the beneficiary payment(s).

Beneficiary Benefits of a Retired Member

Once the TRS receives the documents from the beneficiary, the TRS will determine and calculate the benefits due to the beneficiary. In the month of death, the monthly retirement benefit will need to be returned to the TRS, unless the date of death is the last day of the month.

- If the retired member selected the Maximum retirement benefit, the beneficiary will receive a pro rata payment for the number of days the member was living in the month of death.
- If the retired member selected the Option 1 retirement benefit, the beneficiary will receive a pro rata payment for the number of days the member was living in the month of death and any balance in the member's account at the time of death.

- If the retired member selected the Option 2 retirement benefit, the beneficiary will continue to receive the same monthly benefit as the member, except when legislation did not pass on Cost-of-Living Adjustments to the beneficiary.
- If the retired member selected the Option 3 retirement benefit, the beneficiary will begin to receive 50 percent of the monthly benefit of the member, except when legislation did not pass on Cost-of-Living Adjustments to the beneficiary.

Helpful Hints

- Have a copy of your will accessible to the executor of the estate.
- Death benefits may be subject to federal income tax, but not state and local taxes. If the beneficiary lives outside Alabama, consult that state's tax agency about tax consequences.
- Keep your beneficiary updated at all times.
- Beneficiaries should also use direct deposit for monthly benefit payments.
- Consult an attorney or tax advisor.

Do you know who your beneficiary is? If not, contact the TRS and they will provide the information in writing.
